

Course Proposal for Revised General Education Course
PHI 1990G Logical and Critical Reasoning, Honors

1. PHI 1990G Logical and Critical Reasoning, Honors. (3-0-3) F, S

Short Title: Logic

A study of the structure and evaluation of arguments, focusing upon analysis and informal evaluations of everyday arguments, problem-solving strategies, formal tests of validity, conversational contexts of argumentation, and the interaction of contextual principles with principles of validity. Prerequisites: Admission to the Honors Program. This course is writing-intensive.