

Upcoming LiveText Training Sessions: ALL LOCATED IN 1430 BUZZARD HALL

January 19, 2007~ 11:00 a.m.; 12:00 p.m. (repeat session)

LiveText: Learning the Basics

Faculty and Students Welcome

January 26, 2007~ 12:00 p.m.

Assessments in LiveText: What Do I HAVE to Do?

For all faculty users of LiveText. Which assessments must be submitted for ALL teacher education candidates? In which classes do these occur? How do you create program or class-specific rubrics?

Faculty Session

February 9, 2007~ 11:00 a.m.; 12:00 p.m. (repeat session)

Creating Dynamic Lesson Plans and Using Unitedstreaming Video Resources- Learn how to create lesson plans within LiveText and link Unitedstreaming resources to your lesson plans. Unitedstreaming contains more than 1,500 standards-based video titles, 15,000 chaptered video clips and supplemental teacher guides that are all correlated to state standards.

Faculty and Students Welcome

February 23, 2007~ 12:00 p.m.

Creating an E-Portfolio: Attachments, Video, Audio, and Scanned Documents in LiveText- Looking for a job? Want to impress employers? Learn how to set up an E-Portfolio to include all your best work, and create a Visitor's Pass to show it to others outside of LiveText.

Faculty and Students Welcome

March 2, 2007~ 12:00 p.m.

Assessing Documents in LiveText and Organizing Your LiveText Account- A refresher workshop on assessing documents through LiveText. You will learn how to view summative and individual assessment data for all of your completed assessments. You will also learn how to organize your LiveText account.

Faculty and Students Welcome

March 23, 2007~ 12:00 p.m.

Assessing Documents in LiveText and Organizing Your LiveText Account- A refresher workshop on assessing documents through LiveText. You will learn how to view summative and individual assessment data for all of your completed assessments. You will also learn how to organize your LiveText account.

Faculty and Students Welcome

April 20, 2007~ 9:00 a.m.- 1:00 p.m. (open session)

Ask ANYTHING - LiveText Help! This is an open lab for anyone needing assistance with LiveText. You may come at any time throughout the session.

Faculty and Students Welcome