VI. New Business

- A. Brenda Major, Director of Admissions, informed the Faculty Senate of the current, unofficial enrollments figures that her office has for this semester – 1848 freshmen and 1006 transfer students. Compared to last year, 1735 and 1148, respectively, we are slightly down. Major noted that the transfer students are beginning to act more like freshman students in that they come in undecided and that only ~40 percent of the transfer students have Associate’s degrees. Major hopes to address this issue by offering more career services to the transfer students. Transfer students also typically register later, e.g., ~848 registered in the week prior to the start of classes, so she and her staff are trying to contact them over the summer in order to get them to register for classes earlier. Major reported that talking with recruited students that they reported very friendly atmosphere at Eastern Illinois University. In fact, several students who actually enrolled elsewhere have contacted her to discuss enrolling here or transferring. Major stated that one obstacle faced during recruitment is the fact that Illinois still exports the second greatest number of high school students than other states and that ~51 percent of high school student first go to community colleges prior to university. Recruitment has a difficult time competing with programs out of state that allow Illinois students to register at in-state rates. She hopes that expanding the dual-enrollment program will help attract more transfer students from the community colleges. In terms of marketing, students get most of their information from non-University sources such as FaceBook, Wikipedia, blogs, etc. Her staff are trying chat lines with prospective students and there has been a positive response. There is also a new recruiter / counselor specializing in Latino students. Other programs that have been started to aid recruitment has been a “Prize Patrol” in which recruiters go to local student’s homes and place placards to showcase students who have been admitted to Eastern Illinois University. Students from Mattoon are now asking about the program so the program has been expanded this year to include all of Coles County. The pooling process, in which students with conditional qualifications are reviewed by faculty and recruiters, continues. The Gateway Program also continues strong (241 admitted / 140 enrolled; 65 percent of which were first generation; average ACT score of 16.7 and an average GPA of 2.7) and is more selective than last year (e.g., average ACT of 16.3 and average GPA of 2.4). The freshman Honors class is also the largest in history, with 181 registering, compared to 151 last year. International students also show an increase this year, 65 versus 45 last year. This year Admissions and Recruitment purchased ~11,600 ACT scores of qualified students in order to market specifically to those students. Major also shared new recruitment publications with Faculty Senate. Senator Fischer asked if the length of time it took transfer students to complete their Bachelor's degree was tracked. Major replied that with the implementation of the new admissions form on-line, that Banner will have that capability. Senator Fischer followed up that the costs of transferring and completing requirements at a senior institution should be investigated, since it may actually be less expensive for students to come to senior institutions in the first place and not start at community colleges. Other facilities that campus has to offer should be considered such as the library, RSOs, clubs, etc. Major added that if student attend the senior institution in the first place, they can maximize financial aid as well. Senator Brownson stated that she has read a study that suggested that students who start at community colleges are also less likely to complete a Bachelor's degree. In response to a question, Major stated that herself and her staff were invited to give the academic orientation for prospective college-bound students at Charleston High School this year, something that the University of Illinois has traditionally given in the past. Lake Land College is continuing to offer the financial orientation. Senator Fischer asked that class and ACT profiles be tracked for newly admitted students as well as applicant's. Major stated that an "outcomes" piece, about alumni of 5, 10, and 20 years, is being sent to prospective students to show them the long-term success of Eastern Illinois University graduates. Senator Kilgore stated that we should strongly persuade students to come to Eastern Illinois University rather community colleges since they are better prepared upon completion and asked if the eroding state support for education is being seen. Major replied that the eroding state support for education is being felt by families at all economic levels. In response to a question from Senator Stimac, Major stated that the "I am EIU" campaign is being copied by De Paul and Robert Morris universities. Major finished by stating that the "prospective student" information on the web site will be updated with the help of the University's web master, Ryan Gibson. Chair HaileMariam thank Brenda Major for the information and taking the time to visit Faculty Senate.
