SCHOLARSHIPS FOR STUDYING IN LÜNEBURG, GERMANY

The Leuphana University of Lüneburg offers a number of scholarships funded by the regional business in cooperation with the German Academic Exchange Service to students of partner universities as well as students of other foreign universities for a study abroad period in Lüneburg in 2012/13.

Eligible are undergraduate, graduate, and Ph.D. students. Each scholarship for undergraduate and graduate students amounts to 650/750 Euro per month, paid for a full semester (5 months). Ph.D. students receive 1.000 Euro per month for a research period from 2-6 months.

Applicants should send us the following documents:

- Application form fully completed and signed by the applicant and the home institution (to be found at: www.leuphana.de/en/services/io/incoming/scholarships.html)
- Official academic transcript showing marks that are above average
- A letter of recommendation from an academic advisor
- CV

There is no official application deadline. However, applications should be sent no later than three months prior to the semester or envisaged research period.

We look forward to your application!
