

Resolution:

The Council for Academic Affairs encourages each academic program offering a major, especially those with a significant international focus, to identify by April 1, 2009, the needs of graduates for foreign language proficiency, study abroad, and cultural awareness and to describe how those needs are being met in the current curriculum or to submit proposed curricular and programmatic changes that do so.