

Writing Across the Curriculum Proposal:
Writing-Intensive and Writing-Centered Courses
For "Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree"
Under III. Academic Regulations and Requirements

The Writing Across the Curriculum Committee proposes that Eastern Illinois University adopt the following provisions under "Requirements for the Bachelor's Degree":

11. A native student must successfully complete four writing-intensive and/or writing-centered courses beyond English 1001G and English 1002G.

12. A transfer student with between 30 to 59 semester hours must successfully complete three writing-intensive and/or writing-centered courses beyond English 1001G and English 1002G.

13. A transfer student with 60 semester hours or more must successfully complete two writing-intensive and/or writing-centered course beyond English 1001G and English 1002G.