Kasey is a fun loving, enthusiastic, charming, compassionate, and hard working individual.

Walking around campus Kasey always is seen with a big smile on her face. She is the type of person who can brighten your day even if it was raining outside. If she spots someone that she knows around campus she is always the first to say "hi."

Kasey attends all programs in Weller, if there is not enough room for everyone around a table she doesn't think twice when giving her spot up for another resident to participate.

Kasey was elected on to the Weller Hall Executive board at the start of the Spring semester where she took the position of Publicity Chair. Not long after being elected the E-board revised their constitution which changed Kasey's position.

Her new position in on the E-board is Publicity/Hall Improvements Coordinator. Her responsibilities were doubled but she was up to the challenge.

She wasted no time in tackling things that need to be done. Kasey's first task she wanted to do was put up a bulletin board that showcased Weller Dwellers. She also made a suggestion box to see what changes Dwellers wanted around the hall.

Another responsibility that she has for the position is to make flyers about upcoming programs and meetings. Again she has gone above and beyond her position and making sure new flyers were posted in advance so that all Dwellers were informed.

Student of the Year Selection Committee,

I am very excited to write to you today detailing my support for Miss Kasey Glenn to be awarded the title of Student of the Year. Kasey has been a fantastic role model, passionate leader, and enthusiastic resident all year and she is very deserving of this recognition.

Throughout the year, Kasey portrayed unparalleled dedication to her academic work. Often seen working on homework well into the evening, Kasey has allowed herself to be the very definition of a focused student for others to look up to. Being very driven in her academic work, Kasey holds herself to an extremely high standard and always strives for academic excellence. Becoming involved with her major's honor society; Kasey has proven the valuable effects of being active in your coursework outside of the classroom.

At the beginning of the second semester, Kasey joined the Weller Hall Council Executive board as the publicity chair. In this capacity Kasey tirelessly worked to make her position more than just printing out fliers. She was so effective at her work that during constitutional revisions, Kasey position was expanded to become the Publicity and Hall Improvements Coordinator. Kasey has excelled above and beyond with her work, reaching out to residents of Weller for advice and feedback on how we can make the hall the best it can be.

Kasey Glenn also has a driven and enthusiastic personality that truly makes her stand out above the rest. Many residents will turn to Kasey, not as a hall leader, but as a friend because of her ability to be open and honest. Her resident assistant frequently speaks of what a pleasure it is to have Kasey active in the community.

I am truly in full support of Kasey and the endeavor of allowing her to achieve this title. Thank you for your time and consideration of Kasey for the honor of being named Student of the Year.
