

Sixteen Men June 19, 1942 to Leave Here Next Thursday

Three Others Were Transferred to Boards in California, Massachusetts, Michigan for Induction

Sixteen men from Jasper county, three volunteers and thirteen selectees, will leave Newton at 4:15 o'clock next Thursday morning, June 25, for East St. Louis, where they will be examined and inducted into the United States Army. In addition, three other men have been transferred to boards in California, Massachusetts and Michigan for induction.

A special bus will arrive at Newton at 4:15 o'clock, and enroute to East St. Louis will pick up a number of other men along the route, who are being inducted from other counties.

This group is the second to be sent from Jasper county during June, the previous group of twenty-six men having been sent to the induction center at Chicago on June 5. A number of married men are in the group.

Those who will leave for induction are:

Newton

Earl Edwin Babbs, Ray Clifford King, and Herman Everett Schackman, volunteers; Will Bickers, Marion Burcham Jr., Delbert Floyd Kibler, Harry Thomas Long, Maurice Lester McCormack, Raymond Franklin Ratcliff, Jerome Paul Schmidt, Logan Ellsworth Utley, and Quincy Merl Vanderhoof.

Wheeler

Jacob Dill Flinn.

Dieterich

Charles Howard Clagg.

Rose Hill

Clarence Wayne Coad and Homer Howard Winter.

Transferred

Thurman Carrell Hickman, Newton, was transferred to the Selective Service Board at Marysville, California, for induction; Michael Joseph Koury, Sainte Marie, to Quincy, Massachusetts; and Donald Dwight Daniel, West Liberty, to Ann Arbor, Michigan.
