Lowell Cramer, Francis Kinsel and Leo LaFief of Newton are in a training camp at Tucson, Arizona, according to a telephone message, Tuesday evening.

Corporal Carl L. Kerner, who is in the third armored division at Camp Polk, Alexandria, Louisiana, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kerner of near Newton.

Jim DeVaney of Newton has reported for duty in the Coast Guard at the Coast Guard Training Station at Manhattan Beach, New York. He was sworn in at St. Louis last week.

Earl Jones of Kankakee was a week end guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Jones of Newton. He left Monday for New York City, to report for duty in the United States Coast Guard as a chief petty officer at the Coast Guard Training Station at Manhattan Beach.

Harold G. Leffler, former principal of the Newton Public school, now a lieutenant (j. g.) in the United States Naval Reserve Force, writes: "From Philadelphia I was ordered to Cape May, New Jersey. I think I will like the work here very much. The hotel (Hotel Admiral) is located very near the beach and I am sure it is going to be a splendid place to be during the summer. I cannot, however, be sure just how long I may remain here. Give my regards to all."
