

LETTERS FROM SERVICE MEN

June 2, 1942

Leonard M. Jourdan writes that he is now at Santa Monica, California. He says:

"I am going to school for the next twenty-eight days at the North American aircraft factory in Inglewood, California. I received my diploma at Sheppard field, Wichita Falls, Texas, last Wednesday morning, and was shipped out here Wednesday evening. I arrived here Tuesday night." His address is Private Leonard M. Jourdan, Grand Hotel, room 605, 1725 Ocean front, Santa Monica.

Private Jesse Wells, writing from Camp Cooke, California, where he is in the Fifth Armored division, says:

"Now that chow is over and the dishes all washed, I wish to take occasion to drop you a few lines before the lights go out. It's been two months since we arrived out here in this beautiful country of sunshine and roses, and I can assure you that we all like Camp Cooke just fine.

"There are nine of us boys out here at Camp Cooke, representing the county of good old Blue Jasper—Andrew Chapman, Carl H. Griffith, Frank Hoffman, Louis Meislahn, Vir-
