

Mrs. Jim DeVaney, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. H. E. Watkins of Newton, is convalescing as well as can be expected at the Allen sanitarium at Robinson, following an emergency operation for appendicitis, early Thursday morning. She was not out of danger, Monday, however. Her husband came Friday on a five days' furlough from the United States Coast Guard training station at New York.

June 25, 1942