

Harold Leffler, former principal of the Newton Public school, who went to Scott field a couple of weeks ago for instruction before becoming an Air Corps instructor, is receiving treatment at St. Anthony's hospital, Effingham, for a gall bladder attack. He was taken there Wednesday.

May 19, 1942