Mother's Day—1942

O God, please guide him while he is away,

This boy I bore in suffering and pain;
I give him gladly for my country's need,

But Father, bring him back to me again.

This Mother's day, I may not hear from him,

I know that he is far across the sea,
But I'll not mind that, Father, I'll just wait,

Until You bring him back again to me.—Amen.
