

ENTERTAINED JUNIOR WOMAN'S CLUB

11/6/42

The Newton Junior Woman's Club held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Walter Payne, Monday night, November 2.

The meeting was opened by the president, Mrs. Genevieve Johnson, having the club give the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Miss Mary Alice Smith gave a report on federation news from the club magazine, "The Club Woman."

Mrs. Virginia Marshall was named the new head of the finance committee and it is hoped that through her leadership and the cooperation of the club members, money may be made for the treasury. Plans were discussed to hold monthly benefit card parties throughout the winter months at some public building, where all who enjoy playing either bridge or pinochle may attend.

Two young girls, Miss Donna Stark and Miss Patricia Timmons, from the West Liberty grade school entertained the club by playing four duet numbers on their mirimbas. The selections heard were "The Bells of St. Mary's," "The Pagan Love Song," "Beautiful Heaven," and "The World is Waiting for the Sunrise."

The program committee was very fortunate in getting John D. Davis as their speaker for the evening. Mr. Davis is a well known local man who for several years traveled in foreign countries for the firm of Libby, McNeil & Libby. He had been asked to speak on the topic of "China" and he revealed many interesting things about the Chinese people which the average person does not know. He told of their customs, dress, religion, etc. Club members not in attendance undoubtedly missed one of the most interesting programs of the year.

Hostesses for the evening, Mrs. Payne, Mrs. Maureen Ward and Miss

Francis Adair, invited the club to the Nifty Nook for refreshments. Others present besides the hostesses were:

Mrs. Genevieve Wilson, Mrs. Peggy Wood, Miss Mary Alice Smith, Miss Kathryn Bayse, Miss Lillie Mineo, Mrs. Virginia Marshall, Mrs. Isabelle Richards, Miss Helen Jacobs, Mrs. Lucille Wright, Mrs. Ellen Britton, Mrs. Betty Randolph, Mrs. Kathlyn Rohr, Miss Rowena Hutson, Mrs. Genevieve Johnson, Miss Minnie Montgomery, Miss Marie Kissinger, Miss Bertha Crowley, Mrs. Mary Absher and Mrs. Ethel Wright sponsors. Guests included Miss Norma Reed, Mrs. Mary Barkley, Mrs. Abenium Todd, Miss Timmons and Miss Stark.
