

Twenty-Four Men Leave for Induction Center

Board Will Observe Its Second Birthday Wednesday; New Personnel Clerk Now at Work

Twenty-four men left early this morning for the Chicago Induction center, where they will be examined and sworn into the United States Army. They left here by bus for Mattoon and thence will go by train to Chicago.

Of these, twenty-three are being sent from Jasper county, and one, Edgar Edward Andrews of Newton, has been transferred here from Gary, Indiana. Those who will go are:

Floyd Dean Birk, Harold Eugene Hutson, Franklin Loyal Jones, Paul William Jones, Emmet George Miller, John Malven Miller, Anthony S. Palsalacqua, Marion Francis Pulliam, James Franklin Sims, and Albert Wells Jr., Newton;

John Oscar Davison, Fred William Miller and Paul Donald Miller, Willow Hill; Leo Honie Aten, Paul Graham Harker and Elza Swick, Rose Hill; Rollo Hugh Davis, Greenup; Donald Woodrow Wilson, Jewett;

Roy Sanford Campbell, Yale; Lawrence Henry Bierman and Jamie E. McElhiney, Wheeler; William Albert Dandall, Ingraham; and Delmar Donald Birk, Dundas.

Board Has Birthday

The local Selective Service Board will have its second birthday, Wednesday, Miss Isabel Hines, secretary, stated Monday. The Board opened its office on October 21, 1940.

Miss Anna B. Allen, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mansel C. Allen of Newton, was sworn in as personnel clerk, Monday. She succeeds Mrs. Helen Smallwood Allen, who resigned to join her husband, Private Glenn Allen at Fort Riley, Kansas.

Of the four men held over for further examination last week, Otho Virgle Immel of Oblong and Donald Ralph Shire of Willow Hill were accepted for service in the United States Army, and Clarence E. Lemay of Hidalgo and Wendell Roscoe Harris of Newton were rejected.
