

ROBINSON MAN WAS IN ^{10/29/42} MOVIE AT STAR THEATRE

Robinson, October 26.—Lloyd Martin, son of Mrs. Besse Rae Martin of Robinson, was a member of Glenn Miller's orchestra when they filmed the current motion picture "Orchestra Wives," shown at the Star Theatre in Newton, Sunday and Monday.

Lloyd was educated in Robinson and attended the Robinson Township high school. He has been a member of several big name dance bands including Benny Goodman's.

The local boy is easily recognized in the picture as he is located in the front row wearing a large plaid shirt. Since Miller's induction into the Army Lloyd has been doing studio work for NBC in New York and making two arrangements a week for Benny Goodman.

Monday night of last week the "King of Swing", Glenn Miller and his orchestra, played their last engagement for the duration. Miller is entering the United States Army and will be known as Captain Glenn Miller for the duration. Their final program was presented in an eastern theatre and brought both cheers and tears from the audience. The tears, however, were not limited to the customers made up of Miller fans from Buffalo, New York, Pittsburgh, Boston, Washington, and even as far west as Chicago.

Marion Hutton, pretty blonde songstress, realizing she was singing her last song with the group she had been associated with for four years, broke down while singing and had to leave the stage. With this, Miller gave the cue and the band "gave out" with the arrangement of "Sweetheart Serenade," which had skyrocketed his band to fame some three years ago. By the time the number was finished, Miller himself had left the stage.

Glenn Miller will be remembered for his work in the movie, "Sun Valley Serenade" in which he introduced “Chattanooga Cho-Cho” and in his last movie “Orchestra Wives” for his fine arrangement of “I Got a Gal in Kalamazoo.” His recording of this number has been the best seller for the past three months.
