Sept. 25/42

Corporal William H. Marlowe, United States Marine Corps, Quantico, Virginia, is visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Dyke Dillman of Newton.

Thomas Newsome of Newton, who enlisted in the United States Navy last week, reported for duty at St. Louis, Wednesday morning, and was sent to San Diego Naval Training Station, San Diego, California, for his recruit training.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jordan of Enid, Oklahoma, were guests this week of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. I. I. "Spike" Combs of Newton. Their son, Sergeant Bert Jordan, United States Army Air Forces, was with General James H. Doolittle on the raid on Tokyo, Japan.

Orla Houser of Newton, who enlisted in the United States Navy last week, reported for duty at St. Louis, Thursday. He will be sent to a Naval Training Station for recruit training, probably to Great Lakes near Chicago.
