

Paul Elza Clark, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Elza Clark of Northwest Wade township, enlisted in the Army Air Forces at Chicago, Friday, as an aircraft mechanic.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Belcher of South Bend, Indiana, were week end visitors at Newton. They accompanied her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Allison, here, and returned with them Monday.

Mrs. Gerald Winterrowd and daughters Eudora Ann and Karen of Freeport returned home Saturday morning after a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hester. Irvin Winterrowd of Mattoon joined her there and accompanied her to Freeport to spend the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Winterrowd.

Woodrow Jourdan is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Jourdan of Newton, and other relatives here. He has been employed as a meat cutter at Santa Barbara, California, and said he thought he'd better come back while "he still had rubber." He expects to be inducted into the Army shortly after he returns to the coast.
