

Elza F. Gorrell is home from California, where he visited his son, Frank Gorrell, a petty officer, second class, United States Navy, who has just graduated from Radar school. The latter expected to be sent to sea without getting a furlough, but instead has been transferred to New Orleans and will spend a day or two at Newton, enroute. Elza had a round trip ticket on the train and was just ready to go, when his brother-in-law, William Beeson, who was in the Army and was being ordered to Florida, asked him to drive his car through to Illinois, while his wife came to Chicago on the train to join him, where they would drive on to Florida.

Aug. 3, 1943