

Dale "Deke" Huddlestun

Made Godfather By Proxy

Dec. 9, 1943

MADISON, WISCONSIN, — A young Naval ensign now on the high seas became godfather by proxy when Pamela Jane Scott, infant daughter of Staff Sgt. and Mrs. Dorris E. Scott of Truax Field, was baptized recently in one of the chapels of the post, and Army Air Forces Training Command radio school.

The ensign is Dale L. "Deke" Huddlestun, high school friend in Newton, of the Scotts and Mrs. Scott's sister, Miss Norma Jean Westendorf, who stood as godmother.

Pfc. Martin Zinkann, of Truax Field, acted as proxy for the seaman. The baptism, performed by Chaplain Roland C. Reny, was his first on this field.

Pamela Jane's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Westendorf and Mr. and Mrs. Dorris Scott of Newton.