

Marriage of Corporal Ralph Elston Announced by Aunt

June 17, 1943

Mrs. Paul Dodd today announced the marriage of her nephew, Corporal Ralph Elston, and Miss Delores Frost, at Indianapolis, Ind. The marriage occurred on March 13 and the ceremony was performed by Rev. G. T. Snyder in the presence of a few near relative sand friends.

Corporal and Mrs. Elston have been here for a week's visit with his aunt and other relatives and left Sunday for Mobile, Ala., where he is stationed with the U. S. Army Air Corps, and where Mrs. Elston has employment in a defense plant.

While they were here some sixty-four of his relatives and friends gathered one evening and gave the newlyweds a shower and charivari.

Corporal Elston is a former student in Newton Community high school and is one of the community's most reliable and respected young men. He enlisted in the army July 11, 1941.

The bride comes from a highly respected Indianapolis family and has many personal charms and accomplishments. She is a high school graduate and is now doing her bit in helping her husband to win the war.
