

WRITING TO WAR PRISONER.

June 18, 1943

Friends who wish to write to Elmer Ervin, who is a prisoner of war in Japan, may now do so. The letters should be brief, personal and type-written or in a block form.

No postage is required to send mail to prisoners of war. In the upper left hand side of the envelope write: "Prisoner of War Mail," and in the right hand side write "Postage Free." This is the address: Private William E. Ervin, 467, American P. O. W., Camp Kawasaki Branch, Japan, via New York, New York.

Put your address on the back of the envelope. You may write as often as you like.
