Men to Go

This Week May 4 1943

First Married Men to Be Sent Since Last June Are in Group to Leave for Induction Into Service

Names of the twenty-six men to be sent to Chicago induction station this week from Jasper county were released Monday by the local Selective Service Board. Under a new ruling of Paul Armstrong, state director of Selective Service, names of men sent for induction and those actually inducted may be printed, but names of men rejected may not be used.

The present list contains the names of a number of married men, the first to be sent from Jasper county since last June, except for men married after the draft law became effective. No men were sent from here during April. Names of men to be sent are as follows:

Selectees

Donald Ray Alexander, William Nathan Atteberry (will join the group in Chicago), Dewey Grove Jr., Harry Hester Jr., Boyce Byron McCormack, David Purdy Maxwell, Louis Edward Roberts, Kenneth Laverl Short, James Franklin Sims, William Frank Turner, and Gordon Fay Ward, Newton;
