

Local Soldier Dances

With Movie Stars

Nov. 4, 1943

Thurman Jones, Jr., who is stationed at Santa Anita, Calif., is at home this week for a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thurman Jones.

He seems to be enjoying life in the air corps, and tells of visits to the Santa Anita Canteen where movie stars help entertain the boys in service. He has talked to Bing Crosby several times, has danced with various movie stars and one of the dances he will long remember was with Deanne Durbin.

Thurman has won many citations for excellency of service, which he modestly carries in his pocket.
