Two Men Were Held Over and Board Has No Report on Them; Nine Were Rejected at Chicago

Thirteen men from Jasper county were accepted for service at the Chicago induction center, Friday, seven for the Army, four for the Navy and two for the Marines. Two were held over for further examination and the local Selective Service Board has no report on them, while nine were rejected.

Those accepted were:

Army: Quincy Lee Allison, Lon Cleaver Jr., Ennis Dale Frazier, James Michael Geiger, William Carl Reed, Glenn Waldon Stanley, and Urban George Volk.

Navy: Loren Erwin Foster, Clarence Marion Fulk, Harold Wayne Hickox, and Lawrence LaMoine Schaffter.

Marines: Clyde Leo Songer and Harry Franklin Toland.

Held Over

James Howard Babbs and Kenneth Cloyce Isley were held over for further examination. Mr. Schaffter was a pre-Pearl Harbor "father" (as defined by Selective Service), who went as a volunteer. No report has been received on Luke Edward Lee, the other "father" volunteer, as he was transferred to another board for induction.
