

✓ Mr. and Mrs. Homer Kasserman Jr. are leaving today for Oakland, California, where they will visit his parents, Major and Mrs. Homer Kasserman, and his cousins, Lieutenant and Mrs. George W. Kasserman Jr., at Riverside, California. Homer Jr. was recently discharged from the Army.

Mrs. James Edward Thompson is leaving today to join her husband, Aviation Machinist's Mate First Class Thompson, who is stationed at the Naval Air Station at Alameda, California. They were married on his recent furlough following nine months or more on Guadalcanal during the fighting to capture that island base.

Rev. and Mrs. Raymer L. Miley of LaGrange, Indiana, formerly of Newton, where he was pastor of the First Presbyterian church, are the parents of a son, John Samuel, born at the Sturgis Memorial hospital, Sturgis, Michigan, twelve miles north of LaGrange. He is pastor of the Presbyterian church at LaGrange and reports two recent gifts totaling $1,100 in the past year. Oct. 5, 1943