

Rating For Barney McCormack

— Oct. 7, 1943

Roy McCormack, cashier of the People's State Bank, was in Chicago Friday and Saturday where he attended the graduation exercises of his son, Barney who had completed his training at Great Lakes and Navy Pier. Barney accompanied his father home for a few days leave before being assigned to further duty. He graduated at Navy Pier with the rank of fireman first class. He had special training in Diesel engine mechanics.