

Twenty-Six in Group Up for Induction

Oct. 8, 1943

Final Group of "Non-Fathers" to
Be Sent to Induction Station for Examination Next Week

A group of twenty-six men, the final group of "non-fathers" from Jasper county, will be sent to the Induction station at Chicago from Jasper county next week, for examination and acceptance or rejection by the armed services. Along with the group are two "fathers," both of whom are volunteers. No other "fathers" as defined by Selective Service, are included in the group. They are:

James Howard Babbs, Icell Dorris Brackett, Lester Leslie Burcham, Clem Cox, Louis Berton Cramer, Robert Dean Erwin, Leon Ellsworth Fischer, Loren Erwin Foster, Ennis Dale Frazier, Clarence Marion Fulk, James Michael Geiger, Elmer Leroy Heimrich, Harold Wayne Hickox, Herbert Royce Kibler, William Carl Reed, Clyde Leo Songer, Harry Franklin Toland, Urban George Volk, and Donald Watts.

Quincy Lee Allison, Lon Cleaver Jr., and Mark Ray Meek, accepted for limited service only at an earlier date, and being sent back.

Luke Edward Lee and Lawrence LaMoine Schaffter, "fathers," being sent as volunteers.

Glenn Waldon Stanley, transferred from Gary, Indiana, and Lyle Hunt Winter, being transferred from Rockford, boards to Jasper county for induction.