

With the Oct. 8, 1943 Colors

Private First Class Byrl I. Griffy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffy of Willow Hill, writes his parents he is somewhere in England. He said he had radioed some money home.

"The radio is a wonderful thing. You put English money into it here and it comes out American money on the other side. The English money is very odd. It takes a while to know the value of each piece. England is a country very much like Illinois. When they hitch horses to the wagon they put one in front of the other like we hitch four horses to a wagon," he wrote."

* * * * *

Private First Class Victor Gosnell of Fort Lewis, Washington, is here on a furlough, visiting his mother, Mrs. John Gosnell of near Newton. He is attending a school for cooks.

Private First Class Marion E. Crouse of Fort Myers, Florida, were he is in the United States Army Air Force, has been here on a short furlough. He was called here by the death of his step-brother, Maurice Fuson.

* * * * *

E. Raymond Ochs, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Ochs of Newton vicinity, who is attending the United States Military academy at West Point, is convalescing following a recent illness from pneumonia. The illness developed from injuries received while playing football, when he was knocked out for a time.

* * * * *

Garland L. "Mike" Williams of Newton, seaman second class, United States Navy, has been transferred from Great Lakes Naval Training Station to Pleasanton, California, near San Francisco. His address is Barracks 1541, PDC, Pleasanton, California.

* * * * *

Private John Hauk is spending a furlough with his mother, Mrs. J. O. Hauk of Newton. He is with the Service company of a Tank battalion, and has been in California recently. John is a veteran of the first World war, one of the few in his battalion.

* * * * *

Private William Atterbury was a guest of his wife's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Marshall of Newton, this week. He was enroute from Fort Riley, Kansas, to California, where he will be stationed. Mrs. Atterbury is employed at Indianapolis.

* * * * *

Corporal George A. Cline of Newton and Corporal Theodore Rennie of the Bend have been sent overseas. Both are in the same company of an Infantry regiment.

* * * * *

Corporal Ray C. Ping, who is with the Army Air Transport Command in West Africa, writes that he had some interesting experiences in crossing the

* * * * *

Private Robert P. Worcester, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Worcester of Newton, has been transferred to Storrs, Connecticut, where he is in an Army Special Training unit, studying bridge building with Army engineers. Atlantic-ocean.

* * * * *

Sergeant Ira F. Crouse is now in England with a Motor Vehicle detachment. He is a son of Mrs. William Crouse of near Sainte Marie.

* * * * *

Mrs. Anna Bruner received a cablegram from her son, Robert Allen, saying that he had arrived safely overseas.