

With the Colors

Sept. 24,

1947

Private First Class Daniel E. Diel, son of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Diel of Newton, is believed to be in the Pacific area at this time. His Army post office address is New York City but the notice was mailed from the San Francisco Port of Embarkation. He is in a truck regiment and his parents haven't heard from him for two months.

* * * * *

Mrs. Emma Carlton of Willow Hill has just received a letter from her son, Private First Class Edmund "Speck" Orr, stating he was o. k. and feeling fine. He also said to tell all his friends in Willow Hill and Newton to write to him "as those letters from home mean so much to us." His address may be obtained from Mrs. Carlton.

* * * * *

Corporal and Mrs. William Hinds of Vandalia were in Newton, Tuesday. Corporal Hinds was just discharged from the Army after thirteen months service because of a lame back. He is a son of Mrs. J. Park Hinds of Vandalia, formerly of Newton, and has two brothers in the service, one in the Navy and the other in the Marine Corps.

* * * * *

Mr. and Mrs. Ferdinand Hartrich of Sainte Marie have received a cablegram from their son, Corporal Ferdinand Hartrich Jr., in which he said "Greetings; all well and safe." He and his brother, Private Eugene Hartrich, participated in the conquest of Sicily and probably took part in the landings in Italy somewhere.

* * * * *

Word has been received by relatives of the birth on September 12 of a baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. William Marion Griffith at Springfield, Missouri, where the father is in an Army camp. The name of the new born child is William Howard.

* * * * *

Second Lieutenant Hubert Romack is visiting his parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Romack and Miss Mildred Romack of Falmouth vicinity. He is stationed in the Port command at Fort Dix, New Jersey, near New York City.

* * * * *

Frank Emery of Newton received a cablegram, Wednesday, from his son, Private Donnace Emery, United States Army, who is overseas, offering congratulations on his birthday. He also received a birthday cake from broom factory employes.

* * * * *

Miss Patricia Ross of De Paul hospital School of Nursing, St. Louis, is now a cadet in the United States Nurse Corps. She is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merl Ross of Salem and a grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ross of Newton.

* * * * *

Private and Mrs. Homer Kasser-man Jr. have just returned to Newton from Walterboro, South Carolina. Homer has received a discharge from the Army Air Force because of his health.

* * * * *

Lieutenant Homer H. Winter has been assigned to the Army Air field at Columbus, Mississippi. His wife, the former Virginia Yost of Newton, will join him next week.

* * * * *