

Corporal John H. Maxwell has been transferred to the Headquarters company, 775th Tank battalion, Camp Cooke, California, from the 68th Armored regiment, same camp.

*Sept. 28 * * * * * 1943*

Dale Robinson, specialist first class, United States Navy, has been transferred from the Diesel Engine school, Chicago, to New York City, with his possible destination overseas.

* * * * *

Staff Sergeant Cloyce L. Hunt is spending a nine days furlough at Newton with his wife, and his mother, Mrs. Homer Hunt. He is stationed at Camp McCoy, Wisconsin.

* * * * *

Staff Sergeant Paul Rubsam, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rubsam of Newton, is now stationed in New Jersey with a Tank battalion. He is a radio technician.

* * * * *

William Roy Danforth has been transferred to the University of Florida at Gainesville, with the Army Special Training program. He has been an Army cook at Camp Barkley, Texas.

* * * * *

Sergeant Ralph Elston of Newton vicinity was recently operated on at an Army hospital in England for appendicitis, and at last reports was getting along nicely.

* * * * *

George W. McColley has received a letter from his son, Corporal George S. McColley, announcing his safe arrival in England with an American Armored division.

* * * * *

Corporal Lowell Cramer has been transferred to Morris field, Charlotte, North Carolina. His address is the Eleventh Tactical Reconnaissance squadron.

* * * * *

Laurence F. Arnold and family of Newton entertained Second Lieutenant William Tribble of Washington, D. C., Friday and Saturday.

* * * * *

Donovan C. Bower, seaman second class, has been transferred to the Navy Yard at Bremerton, Washington.

* * * * *

Private Ralph R. May is believed to have been sent to the Southwest Pacific area.