

Sgt. Hunt on Furlough

Sept. 30, 1943

Sgt. Cloyce L. Hunt, former Jasper county circuit clerk, is at home for a furlough with his wife, Mrs. Eugenia Flori Hunt and his mother, Mrs. May Hunt. Sgt. Hunt has recently been transferred from Camp McCoy, Wis., to Fort Sheridan, Ill., and will have the duties of an instructor of illiterate soldiers.

Pvt. E. E. Kracht, of Bradley Field Conn., spent last Saturday and Sunday with his wife, Mrs. Mary Kracht and son Douglas. His father, E. H. Kracht of St. Louis, was also here for the week-end.
