

HONOR SON AND NEPHEW.

Willow Hill, April 17.—A dinner was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chapman in honor of their son, Ronald Chapman, machinist's mate, second class, United States Coast Guard, and their nephew, Sergeant Delbert O. Chapman, United States Army. Part of the usual crowd was unable to attend on the account of Mrs. Chapman having mumps. Those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. K. W. Moran and family of Robinson; Mr. and Mrs. D. L. Chapman and family of Newton; Mrs. Ralph Chapman and sons Sergeant Delbert and Lyle; Miss Eva Halterman; Rollie Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Chapman; and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Chapman and son Billie.

Callers were: Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Coad and daughter Shirley of Champaign; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Chapman; Beulah Cox; Mr. and Mrs. Lorraine Michl and daughter Marilyn Kay; Mrs. Rollie Chapman; Mr. and Mrs. Clone Chapman, son David Kent and daughter Myrna Kaye.
