

*Karl Hamilton
and Byrl Griffy
Receive Wounds*

8/18/44

Telegrams from the War Department Tuesday afternoon brought the word that Sergeant Karl S. Hamilton, a son of John P. Hamilton of Yale, and Private First Class Byrl I. Griffy, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Griffy of Willow Hill vicinity, were slightly wounded in France on July 28.

No details of their injuries were given, although both are known to have been in France with the United States Army.

Byrl had previously written from a hospital that he was injured but did not tell how he received the wounds nor their exact nature.
