

8/18/44

Staff Sergeant Marvin E. Hayes of 49 Addison road, Washington, D. C., waist gunner on an Army bomber, hands over his 'chute to Corporal John F. Weber Jr., of Newton. Weber is a parachute rigger for a squadron of a heavy bomb group of the Fifteenth Air Force based in Italy and personally sees to the repacking of each 'chute every thirty days.