

PAUL McCORMICK
PROMOTED TO RANK OF MARINE SERGEANT

Aug. 24, 1944

LOCAL BOY IS NOW CREW CHIEF IN MARINE FIGHTER SQUADRON

Marine Sergeant Paul E. McCormick, son of Carl McCormick of 407 E. Morgan St, Newton, recently was promoted to that rank at Marine Corps Air Station, El Centro, Calif. He is Crew Chief in a fighter squadron.

Sergeant McCormick enlisted in Chicago in July, 1943, and received recruit training at San Diego, Calif. He received advanced training at Memphis, Tenn.

The sergeant was graduated from Newton Community High School.

Prior to enlisting, Sergeant McCormick was employed as a Machinist and Set Up man for the Revere Copper and Brass Company, Chicago, Illinois.

His wife, the former Bernice Marek of 4528 So. Christiana Ave., Chicago, and daughter, Joyce, presently reside at 3603 W. Dickens St., Chicago.
