Sergeant George A. Cline Is Killed in Action In France on August 8, War Department Reports

Sergeant George A. Cline was killed in action in France on August 8, a telegram from the War Department to his mother, Mrs. Pearl Cline of Newton, received Saturday, announced. The message, signed by Adjutant General J. A. Ulio, was as follows:

"The secretary of war desires me to express his deep regret that your son, Sergeant George A. Cline, was killed in action on August 8 in France. Letter follows."

Sergeant Cline was in charge of a machine gun crew in the Motorized Infantry and had been in France since the invasion of Normandy on June 6. He was probably in the vanguard of the break through from Normandy into Brittany in the first week in August, but it isn't known what American commander he was serving under.

Born at Bogota

He was born at Bogota, October 27, 1918, and had always resided in Jasper county until he entered the Army three years ago. He received much of his training at Camp Livingston, Louisiana. He was employed at the Ohio Oil Company station in Newton before his induction.

Besides his mother, he leaves three sisters, Mrs. Janelle Houser of Newton, Mrs. Eileen Coulter of Grayville and Mrs. Maxine Mascher of Dieterich; his fiancée, Miss Rosalie Tucker of Olney; and many other relatives and friends.

Former Jaseprite Killed in Action

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McKimmy of West Union, formerly of east of Rose Hill, have received word that their son, Private First Class W. E. McKimmy, was killed in action in France, August 3.

Private McKimmy enlisted in the army before Pearl Harbor at San Antonio, Texas, where his wife resides. He was raised in Jasper county near Rose Hill where his parents lived until 1936.

He leaves four brothers and seven sisters of whom Mrs. Paul Hartrich of Sainte Marie, is one. One brother, George McKimmy, is in the Navy somewhere in the Pacific.
