

Harry Dulgar

Jr. Is Killed

in Action

12/15/44

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dulgar of Hidalgo Received Word That Their Son Harry Died in France

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dulgar of Hidalgo were notified by the War Department, Tuesday, that their son, Private First Class Harry J. Dulgar Jr., was killed in action in France, November 25. He was wounded during the summer but had returned to his unit recently.

Besides his parents, he leaves three brothers and three sisters, Russell Dulgar of Dwight, Staff Sergeant Charles Robert Dulgar in the European Theatre of Operations, Corporal William Harrison Dulgar in the Southwest Pacific area, Mrs. Cloyce (Evon) Cummins of Hidalgo, Mrs. Chester (Marguerite) Elder of Indianapolis, and Miss Betty Dulgar at home; and three grand-parents, James A. Dulgar of Rose Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Combs of Hidalgo.

Forrest Romack Is Missing

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Romack of Rose Hill vicinity have received word that their son, Forrest Romack, is missing in action in France. He was serving in one of the American armies facing the Germans.

Forrest was 32 years of age and was born near Rose Hill, where he had resided all of his life before entering the service.

Besides his parents, he leaves three brothers and three sisters, Private First Class Melvin Romack in the Army in the Pacific area, Floyd and Misses Mary and Neva June Romack of Indianapolis Mrs. Maynard (Louise) Collins of Rose Hill, and Edward Romack Jr. at home; and many other relatives and friends.

Private Basil Shull Killed

Greenup, December 13.—Mr. and Mrs. Lon Shull of Greenup received word this week that their son, Private Basil Shull of Greenup, had been killed in action in France, November 22. He had been overseas one month, having arrived October 22.

Private Shull has two brothers in the armed forces, Seaman First Class Max Shull in the Pacific and Sergeant Don Shull in France. The two brothers met in France for the first time in two years on November 19, three days before Basil was killed.

Besides his parents and brothers, he leaves two sisters, Mrs. Voris Newbanks of Effingham and Mrs. Alta Matteson of Greenup.