

Billy Reed Receives

Wounds In French Battle

12/28/44

Sherman Reed, of Newton, has received word that his son, Billy Reed had been slightly wounded in action in France in December.

The information contained in the message did not state the nature of his wounds.