

JIM LAUGEL GOES TO AIR FORCE

Feb. 17, 1944

Aviation Cadet James E. Laugel arrived home Sunday for a furlough with his parents, Postmaster and Mrs. Paul B. Laugel.

Jimmy has been serving for the past eight months with an infantry outfit in the Hawaiian Islands and has now been transferred to the air force and assigned to a training camp at Biloxi, Miss., where he will take his pilot's training.

He will have a twenty-five day leave at home before going on to Biloxi to begin his training.
