74

First Lieutenant Daniel Wayne King arrived Saturday night for a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ona M. King of near Falmouth. He has completed fifty missions over enemy territory.

Lieutenant King has been overseas for a year, serving throughout the North African and Sicilian campaigns and more recently being in Italy with the Army Air Force.

He has been decorated with an Air Medal for meritorious service in flights over enemy held territory.

After completion of a certain number of missions, which vary with the theatre of operations, Army Air Force bomber and fighter crews are sent back to the United States on leave.
