

JIM DUNNIGAN GETS PROMOTION IN NAVY

LOCAL LAD WOULD LIKE LETTERS FROM NEWTON FRIENDS

James H. "Dugan" Dunnigan, who has recently returned to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station after a visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. H. U. Dunnigan, writes the editor of the Mentor-Democrat a very interesting letter, telling of a promotion he has received. He gives his address and asks that his friends in Newton write to him. His letter follows:

Jan. 16

Dear Mr. Page:

Well I got back to camp at Great Lakes safe and sound. I am on the "Out-Going-Unit" to be shipped out some where to where I don't know. I made the service school as electric-ian's mate. I also moved up to a higher rate to a fireman 2nd Class. I suppose Newton is still in one piece and holding together. In the Outgoing unit there are lots of boys. They have also service schools here but I think I will be shipped out somewhere else to school. We have to mess around here for a while to know and find out later where we are going. I have much to say but if you would inform my friends that I would like to hear from them and my new address is

Well I had better close,

A Friend,
