June 15, 1944

RANDOLPH FIELD, TEXAS—Lieut. Paul W. Vanatta, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Vanatta, Rose Hill, has arrived at Randolph Field for training in Central Instructors School.

Central Instructors School, a function of AAF Central Flying Training Command, is the only one of its kind in the United States. It teaches selected pilots the technique of flying instructions so that they can go to flying fields throughout the country as instructors of aviation cadets.
