

Lieutenant W. L. Mineo Expected Home Today 6/20/44

First Lieutenant William L. Mineo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Mineo, of Newton, is expected to arrive home today, after having completed twenty-five missions over Germany and German occupied Europe. He arrived in New York, Saturday and immediately called his parents and his wife.

Bill is a bombardier on a Flying Fortress and was the first man in his squadron to complete his tour of duty and return to the United States. He has been awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross and the Air medal with three Oak Leaf clusters.
