

Cpl. Raymond Snyder

Home On Furlough

June 22, 1944

Corporal Raymond Snyder is at home this week for a furlough with Newton relatives and friends.

Cpl. Snyder, who before his induction into the army air force was the ace softball pitcher in Newton, says he has been playing much ball at camp and his team is leading the camp league with nine victories and no defeats.

He is stationed at a base near Charleston, South Carolina.
