

Ray Clark Serving In Philippines

Nov. 30, 1944

Seaman Second Class Ray Clark (above) is serving in the Philippine area with the United States Navy, according to word received from him this week by his mother, Mrs. Arthur Clark.

Ray has been in service since last May. Before entering the service he was employed at Scott's Dairy and attended Newton Community High School

He would like to hear from his friends in Newton and those wishing to write to him may obtain his address either from his mother or his wife.
