

Wounded Soldiers Are Returning to United States

10/24/44

Mrs. Loren Heady has received word that her husband, Private Heady, arrived in South Carolina, Thursday, and after a few days at a hospital there will be sent to a hospital nearer home. He was recently wounded in France. He is a son of Mrs. Josie Hicks of Headyville vicinity.

Now at Chicago

Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Rubsam of Newton have received word that their son, Sergeant Paul Rubsam, is now at an Army hospital at Chicago. He received a broken leg in the American drive through Normandy and has been in a hospital in England. He was a radio operator and technician.
