

Three Soldiers 10/31/44 Are Wounded in Germany and France

Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Wiyatt of near Dundas were notified Friday evening that their son, Private William C. Wiyatt, was seriously wounded in Germany, October 12.

Private William H. Swick was slightly wounded in Germany, October 14, according to word received by his mother, Mrs. Inez Eaton of near Falmouth, Saturday morning.

Corporal Charles Probas, a brother of Mrs. Ralph Kresin of Newton, was wounded in Holland, September 6, Mrs. Kresin learned, Thursday. He was an instructor in Tank warfare in Louisiana, later served in the Aleutian islands and more recently has been in France. He resided with the Kresins in Newton before entering the Army in 1940, being employed by the Newton Seed & Feed Company.

The word from the War Department brought no other news beyond what is contained in the above messages.

Corporal Geltz Is Home

Corporal Gerald A. Geltz, who was seriously wounded in the Normandy invasion, is home on a seventeen day furlough, visiting his mother, Mrs. Minnie Geltz of Sainte Marie. He is a patient at the Mayo General hospital at Galesburg, and will return there for further treatment.