

Seaman Second Class Virgil Beals, now stationed at Algiers, Louisiana, recently spent a couple of days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vince Beals, and his two sons, Donald and Eugene, who are with their grand-parents at Yale.

* * * * *

Dr. G. C. Brown, who is a captain in the Medical Corps at an Army hospital at Sheridan, Wyoming, writes that Mrs. Brown is again feeling fine. She suffered a heart attack several weeks ago. Dr. Brown says he enjoys his work.

* * * * *

Stanley Matthew Callahan and George Milo Tays of Montrose and Harold Wayne Cunningham of Route Two, Newton, have enlisted in the Navy through the Effingham recruiting station. All are 17 years old.

* * * * *

Electrician's Mate Third Class Gordon Warfel is spending a leave with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Warfel of northwest of Newton. He has been at a Naval base at Norfolk, Virginia.

* * * * *

Captain Leland E. Conley of Galesburg and Misses Virginia and Vivian Conley of Evansville spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Conley of Newton.

- * * * *

Mrs. Robert Phillips of Newton has received word from her brother, Lieutenant Otis Maxwell, that he is now in France and he had seen Charles Geltz from Sainte Marie.

* * * * *

Seaman Second Class Donald Koontz returned to Great Lakes Naval Training Station, Wednesday, after spending nine days at home.

* * * * *

Elbert L. Urfer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Urfer of Willow Hill, is spending a furlough with his parents, after twenty-eight months in the Aleutian islands and Alaska.