

Paul Clark Graduates

At Army Cook School

April 26, '45
Headquarters, AAF Service Command, MTO, Italy — Private Paul E. Clark, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elza Clark Route 4, Newton, Ill., was recently graduated from the first Cooks and Bakers School ever conducted here. Clark, who is now assigned to an Air Service Command service squadron, "somewhere in Italy", has been overseas since December, 1942. Prior to entering the armed forces in September, 1942, he was employed in farming with his father.
